

The Indiana Telephone Privacy laws as they are have served us well over the past few years, and should STAY AS THEY ARE! Any lessening of the restrictions would be a total disservice to Hoosiers!